3/30 - Romans 5:6-11

LOVE

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another... (John 13:34)

- Internal: How was your week...anything new?! How was your walk with the Lord this week?
- External: Is there any individual or family who is struggling or needs encouragement from us?

TRUTH

Let the word of God dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another... (Col. 3:16)

1. When you reflect on the message from Sunday, what most resonated with you?
2. Let's read our primary text, Romans 5:6-11. The opening verse here speaks of humans as weak (morally) and ungodly? How do these characteristics differ from how the culture today views themselves?
3. In verse 6, Paul says, "at the right time." What can we conclude about this seemingly insignificant phrase? How does this bring us reassurance?
4. What is revealed about Paul's writing style in this text? Can you identify the greater to lesser arguments presented? What can we learn from this?
5. This is a question that we visit often because Paul visits it often. In review, how are we justified by the blood of Christ? [Mature believers should aid in helping others understand]
6. When considering the gospel and God's original design, how do verses 10-11 fit into the grand narrative of redemptive history? What is the point of the entire Bible?
7. How does this text bring you joy?
8. Any other thoughts you would like to share before we wrap up this text?

GREAT COMMISSION

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations... (Matt. 28:19-20)

- Did you disciple your family well this week? Is it apparent to others that Jesus the reason for your hope in your daily activity? Would anyone like to share the gospel with the group?

CONFESSION/PRAYER/REPENTANCE

But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today,"... (Heb. 3:12-14)

- Confession is agreeing with God about our sin according to the Scriptures. Is there anything you want to confess before the group? [apathy, idolatry, selfishness, jealousy, anger, envy]
- Let's pray, asking God to help us apply His word to our lives, putting to death sinful desires.
