

LOVE

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another... (John 13:34)

- Internal: How was your week...anything new?! How was your walk with the Lord this week?
- External: Is there any individual or family who is struggling or needs encouragement from us?

TRUTH

Let the word of God dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another... (Col. 3:16)

1. When you reflect on the message from Sunday, what most resonated with you?
2. Let's read our primary text. Have you heard any of these verses before? Have you known the context behind them?
3. What is the context of this Psalm? Practically, how do we find the context of a Psalm, or any text for that matter?
3. What stands out about David's commitment to praise in verses 1–3?
4. What does David say God does for those who seek Him?
5. You may have heard "taste and see that the Lord is good," but what does that actually mean? Why is this idea/reality so hard to convey to a non-believer?
6. How does this Psalm balance the reality of the hardships of life and also hope?
7. How does this Psalm help re-shape our perspective on Praise?
8. Any other thoughts you would like to share before we wrap up this text?

GREAT COMMISSION

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations... (Matt. 28:19-20)

- Did you disciple your family well this week? Is it apparent to others that Jesus the reason for your hope in your daily activity? Would anyone like to practice sharing the gospel with the group?

CONFESSION/PRAYER/REPENTANCE

But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today,"... (Heb. 3:12-14)

- Confession is agreeing with God about our sin according to the Scriptures. Is there anything you want to confess before the group? [apathy, idolatry, selfishness, jealousy, anger, envy]
- Let's pray, asking God to help us apply His word to our lives, putting to death sinful desires.
