

LOVE

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another... (John 13:34)

- Internal: How was your week? Any new life updates? How was your walk with the Lord this week?
- External: Practically, is there any individual or family that needs encouragement from us a group?

TRUTH

Let the word of God dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another... (Col. 3:16)

1. When you reflect on the message from Sunday, what most resonated with you?
2. Let's read our primary text. Why might the psalmist have "envied the arrogant"? What does this reveal about human nature?
3. How does the psalmist describe the lives of the wicked, and what attitudes do they exhibit?
4. Can you relate this to modern examples of "the wicked prospering"? How might this affect someone's faith today?
5. What changes the psalmist's perspective, and why is this moment pivotal?
6. What key realizations about God and himself does the psalmist reach?
7. How might applying this psalm change one's daily perspective on injustice?
8. How has envy affected your faith? What biblical "sanctuary" practices help us gain perspective? Share a time when God's justice became clear in hindsight.
9. Any other thoughts you would like to share before we wrap up this text?

GREAT COMMISSION

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations... (Matt. 28:19-20)

- Did you disciple your family well this week? Is it apparent to others that Jesus the reason for your hope in your daily activity? Would anyone like to practice sharing the gospel with the group?

CONFESSION/PRAYER/REPENTANCE

But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today,"... (Heb. 3:12-14)

- Confession is agreeing with God about our sin according to the Scriptures. Is there anything you want to confess before the group? [apathy, idolatry, selfishness, jealousy, anger, envy]
- Let's pray, asking God to help us apply His word to our lives, putting to death sinful desires.
