

LOVE

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another... (John 13:34)

- Internal: How was your week? Any new life updates? How was your walk with the Lord this week?
- External: Practically, is there any individual or family that needs encouragement from us a group?

TRUTH

Let the word of God dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another... (Col. 3:16)

1. When you reflect on the message from Sunday, what most resonated with you?
2. Let's read our primary text. Verse 5 says that God remembers. Why is this a significant theme in the context of this whole Psalm?
3. What other biblical texts come to mind when you read this Psalm? Does it remind you of any other passages?
4. How does verse 9, "He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever," serve as a climactic statement in the psalm?
5. What is the relationship between "the fear of the LORD" and wisdom in verse 10. Why is this a fitting conclusion to this Psalm?
6. The psalmist says he will give thanks with his "whole heart" (v. 1). What does wholehearted worship look like in practice, and what tends to make it partial or divided?
7. As a community, how can we practically imitate the psalmist's habit of publicly recounting God's works (v. 1b), and why does communal praise matter to Christian formation?
8. Any other thoughts you would like to share before we wrap up this text?

GREAT COMMISSION

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations... (Matt. 28:19-20)

- Did you disciple your family well this week? Is it apparent to others that Jesus the reason for your hope in your daily activity? Would anyone like to practice sharing the gospel with the group?

CONFESSION/PRAYER/REPENTANCE

But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today,"... (Heb. 3:12-14)

- Confession is agreeing with God about our sin according to the Scriptures. Is there anything you want to confess before the group? [apathy, idolatry, selfishness, jealousy, anger, envy]
- Let's pray, asking God to help us apply His word to our lives, putting to death sinful desires.
