5/17 - Isaiah 6:1-8

LOVE

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another... (John 13:34)

- Internal: How was your week? Any new life updates? How was your walk with the Lord this week?
- External: Practically, is there any individual or family that needs encouragement from us a group?

TRUTH

Let the word of God dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another... (Col. 3:16)

1. When you reflect on the message from Sunday, what most resonated with you?
2. Let's read our primary text and the commentary provided in your study bibles. Where and when does this vision take place, and why does that matter?
3. Why do the seraphim cover their faces and feet before God (v. 2)?
4. What does Isaiah's "Woe is me!" reveal about encountering God's holiness (v. 5)?
5. Why does Isaiah focus on his lips specifically?
6. Who initiates the cleansing in vv. 6-7, and what does that tell us about God?
7. Why does the calling come after the cleansing, not before?
8. What does "Here I am! Send me" (v. 8) teach us about the result of genuine worship?
9. How do passages like these instruct how we ought to approach God? Does this passage change how you approach God personally? At church?
10. Any other thoughts you would like to share before we wrap up this text?

GREAT COMMISSION

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations... (Matt. 28:19-20)

- Did you disciple your family well this week? Is it apparent to others that Jesus the reason for your hope in your daily activity? Would anyone like to practice sharing the gospel with the group?

CONFESSION/PRAYER/REPENTANCE

But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today,"... (Heb. 3:12-14)

- Confession is agreeing with God about our sin according to the Scriptures. Is there anything you want to confess before the group, generally? [apathy, idolatry, selfishness, jealousy, anger, envy]
- Let's pray, asking God to help us apply His word to our lives, putting to death sinful desires.
